CLYTH MACLEOD

REGIONAL MASTER FRANCHISE - COMMERCIAL CLEANING

Anticipated surplus of $128,000 per annum to a working couple based on actual current performance but with significant growth expected in the near future.

The Auckland CBD and North Shore regional master franchise of this highly regarded commercial cleaning brand is available for sale. This is a huge area with massive potential for growth. A sales and marketing driven owner with good management skills could develop a large and lucrative business here.

This exciting opportunity will require the further development of an already established solid commercial customer base that is currently generating very significant revenues.

The business is focused on a high quality, cost competitive service with consideration of environmental and health impacts being a point of difference.

This attractive opportunity would best suit someone (or a couple) with good management, customer service and sales skills, who are able to work within a franchise system. They would be well supported by a committed franchisor with a track record of success.

Price $225,000.
